(they are not pornographers, FYI) is generally understood to be about depression, I think. «Balancing on one wounded wing; circling the edge of the never-ending,» it begins. I've thought about it a lot during all this actual solitude, though.

Adventures In Solitude - Frikipedia - Geekpedia

General Comment You shouldn't take it too literal at times. This song is derived from the title - Adventures in Solitude. It's about being alone, getting some space for yourself. Because of the "adventure" in the title, the "wars" described aren't literally wars but metaphors for the turmoil and hard times that may have 'caused the loneliness or need of space.
