I have an old Generac 4000xl (Model: 9777-2) generator that needs an oil change. The manual does not specify the oil type or how much oil is needed. However, I have found out through the parts list that it calls for 30wt oil. I have also heard that during the winter months I should be running a different oil in the cold. I am looking to find out what oil type I should be using in the cold and ...
