Polycarp's Martyrdom | Christian History Institute

The historicity and origin of the resurrection of Jesus has been the subject of historical research and debate, as well as a topic of discussion among theologians. The accounts of the Gospels, including the empty tomb and the appearances of the risen Jesus to his followers, have been interpreted and analyzed in diverse ways, and have been seen variously as historical accounts of a literal ...

Historicity and origin of the resurrection of Jesus ...

Jesus was buried in the tomb of a council member from Arimathea named Joseph (John 19:38-42). All four Gospels testify to this fact. The tomb was guarded by Roman soldiers, and a Roman seal was affixed to it (Matthew 27:62-66). If Jesus was bodily resurrected from the dead, then we would expect that His body would not remain in the tomb. Of ...
