The European Union Referendum Act required a referendum to be held on the question of the UK's continued membership of the European Union (EU) before the end of 2017. It did not contain any requirement for the UK Government to implement the results of the referendum. Instead, it was designed to gauge the electorate's opinion on EU membership.

Q: What's This? A: It's the universal citation, which is sometimes called a "media-neutral" or "vendor-neutral" citation. Generally, creating a citation to a legal source allows a reader to more efficiently locate it. The citation we provide here is one that is media-neutral and does not depend on being located in a print edition of a book.
